Board of Selectmen

Standing: Henry D. Hersey; Benedict Horowitz. Seated: Richard M. Salamone, Sec.; H. Phillip Garrity, Chrm.; John C. Hatch, V. Chrm.

As anticipated, 1972 proved to be another eventful year for the Board of Selectmen. In addition to 22 regular meetings, individual Selectmen have been active in various town subcommittees and multi-town and state association meetings which involve the town of Needham.

This past fall, the Board of Selectmen called a Special Town Meeting at the request of the Bradley Estate Study Committee. The purpose of the Special Town Meeting was to consider a recommendation that the town acquire the Bradley land consisting of 222 acres with all improvements. With the cooperation of responsible town agencies, the town was successful in obtaining preliminary approval from the State for 50% reimbursement of the $925,000 purchase price for the property. The Town Meeting authorized by a 95% plurality vote the purchase of the Bradley property for conservation and passive recreation uses. It is hoped that the acquisition of this property will be of significant benefit to our environment and the quality of life for generations yet to come.

During 1972, the subject of public transportation continued to require serious local consideration. The Board of Selectmen, as a matter of policy, has endorsed a balanced transportation system to meet the needs of the community as a whole. The Board initiated and participated in open discussions with representatives of the Boston Transportation Review Committee and the MBTA on the subject, including a special public hearing in July at the Newman Junior High School. The Selectmen and other planning agencies of the town recognize the need for public transportation as an important part of future services available in Needham. The Board is equally concerned, however, that the adoption of a public transportation system should not have a detrimental effect on Needham. It wishes to avoid the placement of terminal facilities that would adversely effect local neighborhoods as well as overburden the surrounding road networks. The announcement of the Governor's decision on the Southwest Expressway directly affects the future of transportation in the area; the Board of Selectmen must continue to work with local and state planning agencies to promote and secure for the town of Needham balanced public transportation consistent with sound community planning programs. The final outcome of these efforts will, in fact, have a strong impact on the future shape of the Needham community.

As 1973 approaches, we have been deeply involved with the implementation of the 18-month budget and the adoption in 1974 of the State fiscal year. Legislatively enacted, this program poses short-term financial problems for all the cities and towns of the Commonwealth. Every attempt must be made to mitigate the real estate tax effects of this transition period. The Board of Selectmen have been working closely with the Testimonial Dinner for Robbie Ftorek upon his return from the Summer Olympics. Duncan W. Anderson; Robbie Ftorek; Mrs. James Barton, Robbie's grandmother.

The authority of the present Board of Selectmen dates from December 4, 1711. The Town became a corporate body, the 88th in Massachusetts, on Nov. 5, 1711, taking its name from Needham Market in England at the request of Gov. Dudley, since "that town is near to Dedham, although in a different county, in England."

Finance Committee and all town departments to assist in this effort. Service contracts and capital items have been rearranged wherever possible so as not to produce a 2-year effect during the 18-month period. The concern and cooperation of the town committees have to date been most gratifying.

In March of 1972, the voters of the town ratified and thereby put into effect Needham's Home Rule Charter. This event was of significance in that it codified existing laws regulating town government in one document and also provided the Town Meeting an opportunity for meaningful change on a local basis when necessary. With this in mind, the Board of Selectmen constituted a Governmental Review Committee of nine members to examine the structure, operation and effectiveness of the town's administration, and to recommend local legislative changes where appropriate. That committee has been meeting throughout the year and has recommended that the Selectmen initiate suggested amendments to our Special Home Rule Charter Act for consideration as prescribed by the Home Rule Procedure Act (G.L. Chap. 43B). The Home Rule Procedures Act requires public hearings, Town Meeting vote of approval, Attorney General approval, and, eventually, registered voted approval before any suggested Charter amendment program becomes effective. The results of this committee's recommended program of amendments hold significant promise for the future of the system of local government as we know it. Orderly change is essential if the representative Town Meeting form of government is to survive and to deal effectively with the increasingly complex problems we may expect in the future.

Legal Department

William A. Cross, Town Counsel

The Legal Department occupied offices on the second floor of the Town Hall for 2 years. During the fall of 1972, Town Counsel relocated to offices adjacent to the Selectmen's, an efficient move since the Town Counsel serves as Executive Secretary to the Board of Selectmen.

During 1972, several cases and issues of a controversial nature were heard or tried in the Superior Court, the Appellate Tax Board, the Labor Relations Commission, the Industrial Accident Board and the Contributory Retirement Appeal Board. Several new cases have been instituted or contemplated on behalf of the town. Several appeals by taxpayers to the Appellate Tax Board were entered during 1972. Legal problems concerning the Economic Control Act of 1970 and the Pay Board Regulations required Town Counsel opinions and participation in many instances. In addition, Town Counsel provided special services to the Governmental Review Committee and the Board of Selectmen in preparation for the 1973 Annual Town Meeting.

Town Counsel attended all regular and most special meetings of the Board of Selectmen. Meetings of other boards, commissions and committees during the year were attended when requested. In addition, Town Counsel approved all contracts, bonds and related documents when required by town departments.

Town Clerk

Ruth F. Strong, Town Clerk

The Town Clerk's Office continued its routine work of issuing certified copies of births, marriages and deaths. Over 700 certificates were issued in 1972.

A substantial change in the price of fishing, hunting and sporting licenses went into effect October 11th.

Seven sessions were necessary to dispose of the 75 articles in the Warrant for the Annual Town Meeting. Also two Special Town Meetings were held, one on March 27th and the other on October 30. This required sending the changes in the By-Laws to the Attorney General for approval. All appropriations have to be listed and certified for the Assessors and the Town Accountant before the tax rate can be set.

Four elections were held in 1972 which made for an exceptionally busy year.

The Town Clerk's office is open daily Monday through Friday, from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM and Tuesday evening from 7:30 to 9:00.

Between June 30, 1972 and the closing of registration for the combined state and Federal election, 1594 registered. Of these registrations, 333 were in the 18-, 19-, and 20-year old group.

The first board of Registrars of Needham was appointed on June 27, 1884.

ROBERT FULLER HOUSE, 1707.
On Mar. 10, 1711/12, the selectmen were to agree with Rev. Oaks to remain as pastor "if we can atain the House of Robert Fuler to meete in upon ye Lords Dayes for a year."

Board of Appeals

Standing: Stanley R. Tippett; W. Paul Dunn; Charles E. Downe. Seated: William J. Mullen; Morton H. Aronson, Chrm.

Any party may petition the Board of Appeals for: (1) a variance from the Zoning By-Laws (2) a special permit required by the Zoning By-Laws, and (3) a review of the action of the Building Inspector in granting or refusing to grant a permit under the provisions of the Building or Zoning By-Laws. All matters brought before the Board must be in compliance with the applicable provisions of the General Laws. The Board consists of three members and two associates appointed by the Board of Selectmen.

The Board of Appeals held 12 sessions during 1972 and made decisions on 39 petitions. Twenty-one appeals were granted, of which one was granted only in part. Fourteen appeals were denied. In the case of a request for a reversal of a decision of the Building Inspector, the Board upheld the Building Inspector's decision. Four appeals were held under advisement at the end of the year. All decisions are filed in the Town Clerk's Office and are public records.

Under the provisions of General Laws, the first of two publications of a "Notice of Hearing" must appear in a local newspaper at least 14 days prior to the date of the hearing. The expense of such advertising is the responsibility of the petitioner and is included in the filing fee mentioned below. If a favorable decision is rendered and filed with the Town Clerk, a notice is furnished by the Board and must be recorded by the petitioner at his expense at the Norfolk Registry of Deeds in Dedham before the decision takes effect. Application forms and rules of procedure for hearings may be obtained in the Town Clerk's Office during business hours. Rules and regulations of the Board require that a filing fee of 25 dollars accompany each application, together with a plot plan in triplicate. These may be filed in the Town Clerk's Office.

All hearings are public and are held in the Town Hall, usually on Tuesday evenings. All are welcome to attend. Decisions are rendered in accordance with Massachusetts law and the town By-Laws.

Board of Assessors

In 1970 there were 15,009 acres of land in town, of which 13,926 were assessed.

Herbert L. Dodge, V. Chrm.; Andrew M. Carlin, Chrm.; James A. Newslow, Sec.

The State Legislature has changed the fiscal year from January 1—December 31 to July 1—June 30.

In June 1973 real estate tax bills will be sent out covering an 18-month period. Two-thirds will be payable on or before November 1, 1973, without interest which is standard procedure. The balance of the tax is due and payable on or before May 1, 1974, without interest. In October 1974, one-half of the yearly tax for 1974-1975 will be due. The payment of the 1974 bill in two installments will help operate town governments without the usual borrowing of large sums of money. Taxpayers will be expected to pay one-half of their taxes in May and one-half in October of each year.

The tax rate for 1973 will reflect operating costs based on budgets covering more than a 12-month period and therefore will increase proportionately. However, the rate should level off on future bills if care is exercised in spending by department heads and Town Meeting Members.

In 1972 the tax rate was established by the Board of Assessors at $43.00, an increase of $1.50 over the 1971 rate of $41.50.

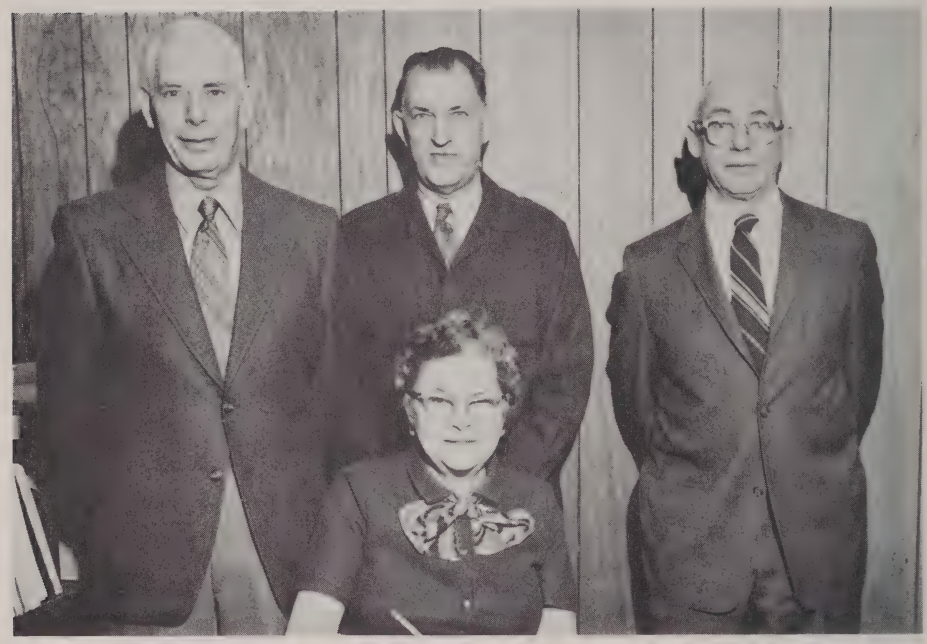
Building Department



Standing: Chester E. Bosselman, Plumbing & Gas Inspector; Warren M. Blew, Wiring Inspector; John C. Rosenfeld, Building Inspector. Seated: Edythe MacKinnon, Sec.

The year 1972 has been a busy one for the Building Department. The number of building permits issued in 1972 was 530, an increase from 483 permits issued in 1971. The number of wiring, plumbing and gas permits remain about the same as the previous year.

Estimated cost of construction for 1972 was $4,835,000 compared to a 1971 estimate of $5,946,000. New house permits in 1972 totaled 56, as compared to 50 in 1971 and 20 in 1970.

Among the industries in the 1800's were shops manufacturing glue, hats, hinges and fastenings. In 1875 about $640,000 was invested in manufacturing. The two factories that made paints and colors had a product value of $550,000, and the 11 hosiery establishments represented capital of $251,000, producing goods estimated at $520,000.

Contributory Retirement Board

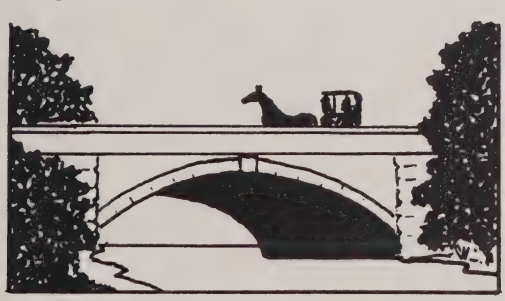
Arthur L. Thayer, Sec.; E. Everett Isherwood, Chrm.; Louis F. Klein, Jr.; Harold D. Bigelow.

The Needham Contributory Retirement Board consists of: Mr. Louis F. Klein, Jr.; Mr. Harold D. Bigelow, member representative; and Mr. R. Everett Isherwood, Chairman. Mr. Klein was chosen to replace Mr. Charles C. Gates who resigned from the Board after many fine years of service. The Board meets on the last Thursday of each month.

The regular members of the system received 5.0% interest for the year of 1972 and will receive 5.3% for the year of 1973. The earnings ratio for the year of 1971 was 5.69%. The total investments as of December 31, 1972 are $2,935,130.

A cost of living increase was paid twice during the year to eligible pensioners.

As of December 31, 1972, there are 832 regular members, 29 inactive members and 196 pensioners.



Data Processing Center

Standing: R. Everett Isherwood, Sec.; A. Ramsey Gifford; Arthur W. Strong. Seated: Glenn T. Barber; George H. Fodor, Chrm.; John R. Reilly.

The Center provides for the maximum utilization of data processing systems and services for the town of Needham. It processes the following:

Water billing and related accounting
Real estate and related accounting
Payroll and related accounting
Pensions
FBI reports for Police
Retirement statements
Blue Cross and Group Insurance
Salary analysis for Glover Hospital, Dept. of Public Works, Parks and Recreation Commission
Expense analysis for Glover Hospital, Dept. of Public Works, and Parks and Recreation Commission
Bank reconciliations
Mailing labels for pensioners and senior citizens.

This year we ran 8700 real estate bills on June 30th. Again we accomplished this early mailing through the generosity of the town of Wellesley which has much more sophisticated equipment. These early mailings have a direct bearing on tax receipts and subsequent borrowings of funds for the town's operational expenses.

The detail required for real estate and similar operations need only be kept up-dated for future use, thereby substantially reducing clerical work in other departments.

We accept requests for our services from all town departments.

Finance Committee

On January 23, 1910 the town adopted a code of bylaws; under section 5 the moderator was directed to appoint at the annual meeting a Finance Committee.

The Finance Committee is composed of nine members appointed by the Moderator for 3-year terms. The committee is the financial advisor to the Town Meeting Members. It has access to all facts, figures and records of all town departments and boards, and with this information makes recommendations designed to assure that the town will have needed services, commensurate with its residents' ability to pay. These recommendations include dollar amounts and methods of financing appropriations.

Soon after the Town Meeting is adjourned, the Finance Committee holds its organizational meeting. The three new members along with the six continuing members elect a chairman and vice chairman, and select members of the Capital Budget Subcommittee, who serve with other members appointed jointly by the Finance Committee and the Planning Board. Members of the Capital Budget Subcommittee for 1972-73 are: David F. Devine, CHMN., David W. Cook, Stephen E. Eaton, Alexander V. Zalesky, E. Loretta Reynolds and A. William Rhodes. This Subcommittee reviews all requests for capital expenditures in excess of $5,000 for any project being considered within a 6-year period or possibly longer.

At the same time, the Finance Committee reviews all of the departmental operating budgets, which include salaries, expenses and small capital expenditures. Open hearings are conducted by both Committees, and details and objectives of the budgets are thoroughly reviewed. Then the Finance Committee prepares a budget for the consideration of Town Meeting Members, and makes its recommendations on all articles in the Warrant which call for appropriations.

Planning Board

Jean S. Hilton, Sec.; Nicholas Filla, Planning Director; Edwin M. Wainwright; Norman A. Homsy, Chrm.; E. Loretta Reynolds, V. Chrm.; Gerald Katz. Missing from photo: Alexander V. Zaleski.

In 1962, Needham's Planning Board stated the following:

> It's a wonderful town, a friendly town...a family town. Because Needham in the past had foresight, we have reaped the benefits of planning...the statutory responsibility of the Planning Board requires that it shall continuously move to implement a long-range planning program to effect the highest and best use of all of the land of the town of Needham.

Ten years later it seems appropriate to repeat these observations. Sound planning is still the most effective way to insure the future of our environment.

The year 1972 was active and productive for the Planning Board. It held 44 meetings and 4 public hearings. The Board submitted 7 advisory reports to the Board of Appeals and commented on 13 requests. In October, the new printing of the Zoning By-Law was completed, copies of which may be purchased at the Town Clerk's office. Revision and printing of the Subdivision Regulations and Procedural Rules are planned for 1973.

The Master Plan: Plans of the various town departments are co-ordinated by means of a Master Plan which is periodically up-dated by the Planning Board. Master Plan research in 1972 covered regional planning, economic base, schools, and related considerations. The completed Master Plan is scheduled for publication in late 1974.

Business and Manufacturing Districts: The Planning Board continued its study of business and manufacturing districts with particular attention to Crescent Road and the retail areas. We have prepared a study of Crescent Road and related Heights areas, and expect to present our recommendations to the 1973 Town Meeting. Regulations for off-street parking and business-district landscaping were recommended to and passed by the 1972 Town Meeting. A subcommittee to plan the future of the central business districts was appointed in November. A design for improvement of the Town Hall parking lot was also accepted.

Open Lands: The Flood Plain Zone, the Bradley land, Rosemary Beach, and the Mill Site were major interests of the Planning Board. The Board applauds the official town actions taken on these areas. We expect to meet shortly with the MDC to review plans for development of the Cutler Park and Kennedy Farm areas. In 1972 the Planning Board spearheaded the creation of the environmental Protection Commission in order to safeguard Needham's total environment.

Transportation: Public transportation and the local traffic situation were the subjects of several meetings among the Planning Board, local officials, and representatives of several state agencies. We expect to continue these studies and have prepared a questionnaire for townwide distribution early next year.

Interagency cooperation: Effective work by the Planning Board requires imput from the community and especially from official town and state bodies. In this respect 1972 was a singularly successful year. We consulted with many town committees, elected boards, and other individuals who requested and received many hours of assistance in the physical planning of Needham.

During 1973 the Planning Board will direct its attention to those areas of physical planning still unexplored, so that in 1982 it can again be written, "Needham is a wonderful town!"

Hundreds of acres of soil were removed from East Needham near the Charles River and southeast of the Upper Falls in 1859 to fill the Back Bay in Boston. For 25 years after the land was of little value and an evaluation of $10 per acre was thought to be high.

Personnel Board

George E. Peters, Exec. Sec.; David B. Ellis; Albert J. Grennan; Vance H. Dodson, Chrm.; Peter S. Damon, V. Chrm.; John J. Ryan.

The Personnel Board has the responsibility for administering the provisions of the Needham Consolidated Personnel By-Law. The policies and procedures of this By-Law are for all town service employees except those of the School Department and the hospital.

The Personnel Board is composed of five members appointed by the Moderator for 3-year terms. This year's Board has three businessmen, a lawyer and a doctor.

A prime responsibility of the Personnel Board is to develop a total program that encompasses wages and salaries, fringe benefits and job classifications, enabling the town to attract well-qualified employees.

The Personnel Board is aware of new legislation which might affect town employees. It keeps abreast of salaries and fringe benefits offered by surrounding towns. The cost-of-living index for the Boston area as reported by the Bureau of Labor Statistics is reviewed,and is a factor in the Board's final recommendations to Town Meeting.

The Personnel Board regularly meets throughout the year and hears requests regarding individuals or departmental needs. The Board hears and acts on personnel grievances as outlined in the By-Laws.

The Selectmen have designated the Board to act as the town Bargaining Agent in contract negotiations with employee unions or bargaining representatives. This phase of work will become more involved if additional groups are recognized as individual bargaining units.

The recommendations made for the 1973 Town Meeting will be within the guidelines as set forth by the Wage and Salary Board under the provisions of the Economic Stabilization Act.

Col. Jonathan Kingsbury House, 1779.
For many years his sawmill on Rosemary Brook supplied the oak plank to repair town bridges.

Town Accountant

R. Everett Isherwood, Town Accountant

In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 41, Section 41, of the General Laws under the Uniform Municipal Accounting System prescribed by the Director of Accounts in Massachusetts, detailed reports are submitted for the year ending December 31, 1972. These schedules are listed in Financial Accounts, Section 2, 1972, Town of Needham, Annual Town Report as follows:

Debt Statement
Receipts and Sources of Receipts
Expenditures Schedule—Appropriation Ledger Payments
Balance Sheet
Deferred Revenue
Investments Accounts and Trust Funds

All bills and payrolls presented for payment during the year by town departments have been checked for accuracy and legality. Investments of cash and securities of all trust and investment funds have been accounted for.

Payrolls for all departments are prepared on payroll worksheets and submitted to the Data Processing Center. Payroll registers are prepared for approval and signature of the Town Accountant accompanied by proper documentation and accounting control. Payroll registers are submitted to department heads and/or committees or commissions for authorized signatures. Programmed accounts for revenue and expenditures accounting are being formulated and are expected to be operational in 1973. The cooperation of all departments and committees throughout the town is very much appreciated and gratefully acknowledged.

Treasurer and Tax Collector

A. Ramsay Gifford, Town Treasurer and Tax Collector

The Treasurer and Tax Collector is the principal financial officer of the town. His responsibilities are the receipt and disbursement of all monies received by the town from all sources.

Our bonded debt was $6,705,000 as of January 1, 1972. During the year payments were made of $1,100.000. The addition of the Water Tower Bond, 8 years at 4.2% amounted to $300,000, leaving a bonded debt balance on December 31, 1972 of $5,905,000. Interest payments for the year on our bonded debt amounted to $250,613.

Motor vehicle excise tax bills prepared by the Registry of Motor Vehicles were received very late in the year and caused confusion when many residents received bills for 2 separate years within a month of each other.

During 1972 it was necessary to borrow $5,500,00 on short-term notes (same as 1971) in anticipation of real estate taxes. Interest rates ranged from 2.22% to 2.70%, amounting to $71,200 in interest.

The Fiscal Cycle Bill enacted in 1969 and postponed each year, will become operative on January 1, 1973. This bill requires that all departments must budget for 18 months, January 1, 1973 through June 30, 1974, and thereafter on a fiscal year basis, July 1 through July 30. One of the main features of this bill is that real estate taxes are to be paid on a semi-annual rather than annual basis starting in 1974; half is to be paid by May 1, and the other half by November 1. In this way, your Treasurer will be able to borrow for shorter periods of time, thereby saving on interest. However since it will necessitate receiving payments twice a year, it will entail more clerical work.

During 1972, surplus funds were invested in U.S. Treasury Bills and Certificates of Deposit, which amounted to $14,394 additional income to the town.

The total funds voted at the 1972 Town Meeting amounted to $20,-236,678, an increase of $1,334,676 over 1971.

Commissioners of Trust Funds

The Commissioners of Trust Funds consist of a board of three persons who are elected for a 3-year term each.

The Commissioners are responsible for the management and supervision of all trust funds given or bequeathed the town. The approximate principal amount of all such funds is $385,000.00. Income and/or principal of the trust funds is used (among others) by the Glover Memorial Hospital, Needham Free Public Library, the School Department, Needham Cemetery, Parks and Recreation Commission and the Needham Council on Aging.

The Commissioners meet on a monthly basis at which time investments are reviewed and updated, and discussions with trustees and other town officials conducted.

The most recent addition to the growing list of Trust Funds was the Walter D. Burke Scholarship Fund, presented to the Needham School Committee by Mr. & Mrs. James Burke on June 27, 1972.

Public Works

Robert A. MacEwen, Superintendent

Public Works includes, in its broadest sense, all endeavors related to the planning, designing, construction, operation, maintenance and management of the physical facilities necessary or desirable to community life.

The Needham Public Works Department renders service to all citizens in the areas of highway maintenance and construction, water supply and distribution, sanitary and storm sewer construction and maintenance, solid waste disposal, traffic control, shade tree planting, insect control, park maintenance and snow removal. The department provides its own administration, engineering and equipment maintenance.

One item that appears year after year in the Public Works Capital Outlay Program is equipment replacement. This is perhaps the single most significant item in the Public Works budget. It enables the department to operate from year to year with approximately the same number of employees and to cope with an ever-increasing workload. The equipment fleet currently numbers about 110 pieces, more than 90 of which are registered, and is valued in excess of $500,000.

Trucks and construction equipment have become much more sophisticated in recent years and careful consideration must be given when specifications are prepared for public bid. Constantly-changing safety regulations must also be recognized and incorporated in bid specifications.

Municipal equipment must be suited to as many year-round uses as possible so that costly items of highly-specialized machinery do not sit idle from season to season, wasting taxpayer's dollars. Yet many equipment manufacturers design their products to do one or two things well but fail to meet the versatile needs of a community.

This Department is constantly on the lookout for types of equipment that will reduce the amount of manual labor required on any given construction or maintenance assignment. It is equipment of this nature that will enable the department to maintain its current low ratio of personnel to services rendered.

Activities of the various divisions of the department are herewith submitted by the Divisional Superintendents.

Engineering Division

John D. Marr, Jr., Town Engineer

The main function of the Engineering Division is to provide the necessary computation, design and supervision for the construction of the utilities and roads in the town.

Engineering services were provided for the installation of 0.54 miles of sanitary sewers and 0.71 miles of storm drains by town forces. Under the provisions of Subdivision Covenants, engineering services were provided for the installation of 0.64 miles of sanitary sewer and 0.44 miles of storm water drains in Meetinghouse Circle, Mallard Rd., Hancock Rd., Paine Rd., Perrault Rd. and Standish Rd.

Construction plans and contract documents were prepared for the construction and acceptance of two streets under the Betterment Act, and acceptance plans were prepared for four Non-Betterment streets. Currently the Division is preparing construction plans for street, sewer and drainage work for the coming year.

In keeping with the preliminary plan developed by the Norris Farm Study Committee, the engineering division designed the first phase of the athletic field complex for the Parks and Recreation Commission. Under the supervision of survey parties of the Division, grading, loaming, and seeding of this phase has been accomplished. Currently the survey parties are supervising the construction of storm drains which are being installed by town forces for the Norris Farm Athletic Field.

Engineering personnel have prepared and updated plans for the Public Works Department, Board of Assessors and Planning Board. The Division also prepared miscellaneous mapping projects in connection with wetlands identification for the State Department of Natural Resources and plans for the Bradley land for the Conservation Commission.

In addition, the Division was called upon to supervise reconstruction of miscellaneous athletic facilities, the cinder track and installation of drains at Memorial Park.

This Division is performing resident supervision of construction of the Birds Hill Water Tank scheduled for completion early in 1973.

Forestry Division

Robert L. Yokes, Divisional Superintendent

The year 1972 was an excellent year for this Division and programs were completed as scheduled.

Approximately 550 trees were planted in the spring, and favorable weather in the fall facilitated the planting of 200 additional trees. Seventy-five percent of the trees planted were supplied by the town nursery on Charles River Street. Approximately 175 small trees were lined-out in the nursery, which, when grown to planting size, will be used in future street planting. The town nursery has a good inventory of trees, 50% of which will be available for the 1973 planting program. The additional trees needed for planting will be purchased through competitive bidding from private nurseries.

Dutch Elm disease decreased and 22 trees were removed in 1972 as compared with 39 in 1971. The disease was most prevalent in areas with a large elm concentration. The dormant spray applied to control the disease was ineffective because of the heavy rains in the spring. Mosquito control in the early summer was active although hampered by persistent rainfall. Emphasis was placed on treatment of breeding areas such as swamps and stagnant water conditions.

Tree removal was confined mainly to those trees located in the grass strips between sidewalks and roadways. These are older trees growing under adverse conditions. Insect control was normal and no serious problems occurred during the year. Dry weather conditions in the summer caused some build-up of aphids, Oak Leaf Skeltonizer and Oak Leaf Miner were not as prevalent as in previous years. The Gypsy Moth outbreak observed in neighboring towns in 1971 did not materialize in Needham to any significant degree.

Highway Division

Robert J. Lanigan, Divisional Superintendent

In the year 1972 the Highway Division widened the roadway, constructed sidewalks and installed granite curbing on Great Plain Ave. from Pickering St. to Highland Ave. and from Garden St. to Eaton Square. Granite curbing was also installed on Lincoln St. from School St. to the hospital parking lot. These projects have served to ease traffic flow and to improve the aesthetic appearance of Needham Square area.

Working with other town departments, the Highway Division reconstructed the cinder track at Memorial Park and installed pole vault and broad jump runways, together with a high jump take-off area. The Division also added to the parking area at the Harris School and paved an additional play area at the Mitchell School.

In the maintenance program, the Division resurfaced over 6 miles of roadways, 4 miles of sidewalks and replaced or erected 300 street names and other related signs. Street lighting improvements were made on Central Ave. from Great Plain Ave. to the Dover line as well as on numerous residential streets. This program will be continued to give Needham much-needed lighting, particularly in the older residential sections.

A major responsibility of the Highway Division is the operation of the Disposal Area. This year, the Board of Selectmen instructed the Division to issue dumping permits to all residents using the area. The ruling has given the Division control over indiscriminate dumping and has provided a means to comply with state regulations governing the disposal of solid waste. Recycling of useable products is now a standard practice of 20 percent of the community. The Division is grateful to the Needham Garden Club and League of Women Voters for their support and particularly for their beautification program at the entrance to the Disposal Area.

The equipment replacement program has been continued with the purchase of one sedan, one dump truck, and one 8 to 12-ton roller, one 2-yard front-end loader, one snow blower and one high pressure sewer and drain-cleaning unit. To maintain operating efficiency and keep repairs within budget allowances, Public Works equipment must be replaced in an orderly manner. The townspeople may point with pride to our well-maintained fleet of equipment. It ranks with the finest in the Commonwealth.

Sewer Division

Patrick Tocci, Divisional Superintendent

The Sewer Division is responsible for the maintenance of all sanitary sewer and storm drain systems within the town.

The Sewer Division installed 2,841 feet of 8-inch sewer pipe, 150 house connections, 112 feet of 4-inch pipe, 587 fet of 8-inch pipe, 3022 feet of 12-inch pipe, and 38 feet of storm drain under its construction program.

Private developers installed 3,390 feet of 8-inch sewer pipe and 2,352 feet of 12-inch to 30-inch storm drain at no cost to the town.

Sewer Division personnel connected 25 homes to the sanitary sewer system in the Rosemary Lake watershed area. This was in compliance with a joint order of the Board of Selectmen and the Board of Health to relieve the pollution of Rosemary Lake and its tributaries. Approximately 10 homes in this area remain to be connected to the town sewer. These conncetions will be completed in the spring.

More than 110 miles of sewer mains and storm drains have been cleaned by a mechanical cutter under the maintenance program.

The Sewer Division added a high-velocity sewer and storm drain cleaning machine to replace a Roto-rooter that was 10 years old. This unit has a 1200 gallon capacity water tank that delivers 60 gallons per minute at a pressure of 1200 pounds per quart and utilizes this high water pressure to clean and scour pipes. The high-velocity tank is mounted on a model 1700 Loadstar International truck, which will be part of the winter snow-plowing fleet.

Ten sewer pumping stations are maintained and serviced daily by members of the Division. More than 1½ miles of brooks and streams have been cleaned, and approximately 500 feet of stone masonry walls constructed along Rosemary Brook in the Winfield St. and Nehoiden St. areas.

The Division has two men on duty 24 hours a day to cover emergencies. In 1972, approximately 250 calls were received from homeowners requesting assistance. The primary reasons for residential sewer stoppages were grease from garbage disposal units and tree-root growth in connection pipes. Citizens are reminded that cold water should be used when operating household waste grinders.

Herbert Mackintosh House Fire

Water Division

Bruce E. Nagler, Divisional Superintendent

The Water Division supplies water to the town from two wells and a connection to the MDC system. Water flows to the consumer through a system of mains 20 inches in diameter and smaller. The water is metered and bills are sent to consumers. The 19 Division employees operate, maintain and repair pumping stations, chlorine and fluoride equipment, water mains, service connections, hydrants, standpipes and meters. Approximately 8,800 meters are read twice a year. Two men are available on call at all times for emergency repairs.

The heavy rainfall during the spring, summer and fall has resulted in a year of low water consumption. The total water pumped in 1972 was 1,178,298,000 gallons, compared with 1,344,268,000 in 1971. The average amount of water pumped in 1972 was 3.22 gallons per day, compared with 3.38 million gallons per day in 1971. August 26th was the day of maximum use with 6,586 million gallons pumped.

In 1972, Water Division personnel installed 2,154 feet of 16-inch mains, 300 feet of 6-inch mains, 318 feet of 2-inch mains and 148 feet of 1½-inch mains. The major project was the continued installation of a 16-inch water main on South St. The Division installed 46 new services, 40 partial services and 143 outside meter-reading devices. It also repaired 10 main breaks, 33 broken services, about 1,000 leaks at meters and 9 hydrants damaged by vehicles. More than 1,100 hydrants were opened and tested to insure operation. Private developers installed 3,884 feet of 8-inch mains on Stratford Road, Meetinghouse Circle and Hancock Rd. and 200 feet of 6-inch pipe on Mallard Rd.

During 1972, Superintendent Carl A. Flint, General Foreman Carmine Sammarco, and John Emery retired. The Department is appreciative of the faithful service given by these men.

A Water Rate Study Committee, appointed by the Board of Selectmen, has prepared a report advocating an increase in rates so that the total cost of operating the Water Division, including its construction program, will be collected from water users. In recent years, some of the Division's expenses have been paid for from property taxes. The Committee also recommended that all the expenses of the Division be allocated to the Division and that it adopt the system of accounting commonly used by the waterworks indutry. The Selectmen have approved these changes which will be put into effect at the beginning of 1973.

Civil Defense

Julius T. Fedel, Director

Civil Defense is a public safety agency with two important functions; it serves as the Selectmen's emergency coordinating staff and as a reserve force providing manpower and facilities in time of emergency.

In Needham, Civil Defense is an active department with a paid staff of two, the Director and a part-time secretary, who are supported by unpaid volunteers. The volunteers make Civil Defense what it is: trained neighbors helping other neighbors in time of need. Civil Defense, by whatever name, is a long-standing American tradition.

Needham's emergency nerve center is the EOC (Emergency Operations Center) which provides an extensive communications and coordination network. It includes 8 two-way radio systems capable of direct contact with over 100 radio-equipped fire, police, public works and civil defense vehicles. Radio contact with the fire departments of surrounding towns and contact with the sector and area commands of the State Civil Defense Agency can also be made.

Telephones play an important part in the EOC. The National Warning Service (NAWAS) "hot line" brings warning of a national emergency, a state-wide disaster, or a severe storm alert. The NAWAS telephone can also be used to call for help in a hurry. Civil Defense has supplied the Police Department with a NAWAS telephone, thereby insuring 24-hour coverage. The EOC maintains direct telephone extensions from the dial switchboards of the hospital, Town Hall, and the schools. A direct incoming trunk from the public system, 444-6999, is also installed in the EOC.

EOC has its own 25,000 watt power plant which can operate continuously 24 hours a day for nearly a month without refueling.

Needham's EOC is one of the best in the nation for a community of its size. The fact that it was established at little cost to the taxpayer is a tribute to our dedicated volunteers. If you are interested in doing something for your town, Needham's Civil Defense can use your services.

Fire Department

William Hanson, Chief

The year of 1972 proved to be another exceptionally busy year for this department. Despite an increase in the number of fires in homes and other buildings, Needham maintains a low fire loss. This is due to the efficiency of the Fire Department combined with modern fire-fighting methods and up-to-date equipment.

During the year the department responded to 1,473 calls. It laid 20,000 feet of 2½" hose, 14,150 feet of 1½" hose and 9,800 feet of forest hose. It used 350 boosters and raised 2,480 feet of ladders. The mutual aid protection program was carried on with surrounding cities and towns.

The department purchased a new Hurst Power Rescue Tool called the "Jaws of Life." This versatile, swift and portable rescue tool provides 10,000 pounds of useable force to rescue trapped victims in auto accidents, aircraft disasters, surface transportation systems and a variety of industrial and commercial rescue areas. This tool features quiet hydraulic operation that is flameless and free of spinning blades or wheels. Through the cooperation of the Central Salvage Corp. our men received valuable training in the use of this rescue tool on wrecked vehicles.

Police Department

Daniel C. Henderson, Chief

As each year passes, we in the Police Department look back and try to analyze our strengths and weaknesses. We are human and, therefore, subject to human error.

The prevention of crime is just as important to us as the apprehension of criminals; for this we need the help and cooperation of the public. Many times during the course of an investigation, people tell us that an incident made them suspicious but that they didn't notify the Police because they feared involvement or retaliation. That call might well have prevented or solved a crime.

Chapter 94C of the General Laws went into effect on July 1, 1972. It is called the "Controlled Substances Act" and is a recodified version of the Massachusetts Drug Laws. It is a lengthy law and its implementation requires some adjustment.

Drug abusers are still a problem within the community. They have become sophisticated in drug usage; they know the amounts required to achieve the feeling they desire. The only time they come to the attention of authorities is when experimentation with new drugs causes adverse results. It has become an underground culture difficult to penetrate.

Starting July 1, 1973, drunkenness will no longer be a criminal offense. Studies are currently being made so that transitional changes will be smooth and the spirit of the law maintained.

The hard, cold statistics which follow are indicative of what we have been involved in during the past year. The increase in crime is not confined to the boundaries of our town, but shared with surrounding communities. It has become an area of common concern. With support and cooperation from the community, we can expect decreases in certain areas.

Conservation Commission

The Conservation Commission is an appointed Committee whose function is to advise the Board of Selectmen and citizens on matters pertaining to conservation of natural resources and our environment. The Commission is empowered to acquire land and to receive gifts of land for conservation and recreation purposes.

The activity of this Commission during the past year was highlighted by the vote of the Special Town Meeting in October which authorized purchase of the J. Gardner Bradley property by the town for conservation purposes. The acquisition of this 220-acre site, located on Charles River Street near Pine Street, significantly increases the town-owned land devoted to open space activities and green belt areas.

The Commission wishes to express its appreciation to the Bradley Land Study Committee for its tireless efforts in bringing to fruition this fine opportunity to preserve the character of Needham for future generations.

The Commission, in concert with the Federal Funds Administrator, is actively pursuing Federal and state funds to defray in part the cost of this acquisition.

The Commission has conducted two public hearings under the revised provisions of the Hatch Act pertaining to proposed filling of wetland areas.

With the cooperation of the League of Women Voters, D.P.W. Engineering Division and interested young people, the Commission has completed the task of identifying ownership of wetland areas located in Needham. It is anticipated that the Department of Natural Resources will conduct a Public Hearing early in 1973 to delineate those areas which will come under the regulation of the Inland Wetlands Act.

Continuing activity of the Commission, in conjunction with the Needham Parks and Recreation Commission and similar bodies in Newton and Dedham, has resulted in a plan for improvement of Cutler Park by the Metropolitan District Commission. Implementation of the plan, which was approved by the three-town committee, has already begun. Included in the project are improved parking areas, park entrance signs, boat-launching sites, picnic areas and skating facilities, as well as fish-stocking plans, and development of the Kennedy property as a working farm.

Council on Aging

The General By-Laws of the town of Needham state that "it shall be the duty of the Council on Aging to carry out programs set up to meet the problems of aging...and to develop programs which are designed to meet their needs in the areas of health, education, income, social welfare, legislation, community service, and recreation." Twelve members are now serving on the Council and the Chairman in appointed by the Selectmen.

In November Dr. Dorathea Willgoose stepped down after serving for 9 years as Chairman of the Council. She is now functioning as special consultant to the Council.

The "first run" of the Roche Bros. Senior Shopping Bus.

Under Dr. Willgoose's direction in 1964 a Senior Adult Center was established at the Y.M.C.A. This information and referral service was staffed by older volunteers in accordance with Dr. Willgoose's philosophy of having retired persons plan and implement their own programs. In April 1966, the selectmen made larger facilities available in the lower level of the Town Hall, and the Senior Adult Center began its years of rapid growth under her innovative and capable guidance. The ramp leading to the Center is the result of her efforts, and has made it possible for handicapped senior adults or members of their families to avail themselves of the variety of services offered by the Center.

During her 9 years as Council Chairman, Dr. Willgoose's leadership saw the development of many new programs such as Social Security Contact Service, visiting to shut-ins and those in nursing homes, Keep Well Nutrition Clinics, and Traveling Meals. Dr. Willgoose believed in the importance of identifying specific needs, and several important Council On Aging surveys were made during her term of office in the areas of housing, health, and transportation.

The Senior Adult Center, located in the lower level of Town Hall, is open from 9 AM to 4 PM daily Monday through Friday. A group of 50 volunteers assist as hostesses, clerical workers, drivers for the Muzi station wagon, instructors of classes, and visitors to the ill. The Executive Director administers the program, but without these volunteers the Senior Adult Center could not provide the variety of services to the community's elderly.

One of the most important features of the Center is its Information and Referral Service. The elderly and their families are able to receive direct assistance by telephone or in person in areas such as housing, taxes, health, and other related categories. A Field Representastive of the Social Security Administration is at the Center every Friday morning between 9 and 10 AM to assist with disability, retirement, and Medicare problems.

Recreational and educational opportunities at the Center include a craft class, choral group. crewel embroidery class, sewing class, films and travelogues.

In November the Traveling Meal program celebrated its first birthday by delivering its 2,675th traveling meal. This vital health service provides two meals daily to elderly or handicapped residents who are unable to shop or to prepare food.

September 14th marked the first run of the Roche Bros. Senior Citizens Shopping Bus which provides Thursday service to Senior Adults who wish to shop or visit friends. Residents of the housing for the elderly are finding this free one-day-a-week bus service indispensable. A committee of older citizens have done the planning for this venture and are continuing to work to make transportation opportunities available to more and more elderly.

Board of Health

Margaret L. Pierce; Kenneth Christophe, M.D., Chrm.; John D. Fernald, M.D.

At the annual town election held in March 1972, Dr. Kenneth Christophe was re-elected as Chairman and Mrs. Margaret L. Peirce was elected as a new member of the Board, filling the vacancy left by the death of Mrs. Leslie B. Cutler. We are very happy to welcome Mrs. Peirce to membership on the Board of Health.

Public Health Nursing

We have attempted to keep the Public Health Nursing program up-to-date and geared to the needs of the citizens of Needham. Emphasis is placed on immunization, screening and prevention of communicable diseases. Tuberculosis patients are now being discharged after a shorter stay in the hospital which assigns additional responsibility to the Public Health Nurses. The nurses cooperate with the Glover Memorial Hospital staff in health promotion activities and other educational programs.

Clinics

The Board of Health in cooperation with the Lions Club held two glaucoma-screening clinics. A total of 350 adults were examined; five cases of glaucoma were diagnosed and 47 were referred to private doctors for further examination. The Board of Health sponsored a lazy-eye-screening program in cooperation with the Needham Junior Century Club. This program is open to every 4-year old child in Needham. This past year 386 children were screened and 37 referrals made. In May, with the cooperation of the gynecology staff of Glover Hospital and the American Cancer Society, a Pap test and breast-examination clinic was conducted. Flu-immunization clinics were held for town employees and senior citizens. We administered 24 typhoid shots to employees of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

Well Child Conference

Our Well Child Conference has increased to an enrollment of 75 families. Activities include hearing and vision examinations, developmental screening, nutritional guidance, and home visits when indicated. Volunteers from the New Century Club and Red Cross assist with transportation, weighing, measuring and registration. This Conference is held on the second and fourth Tuesday afternoons at the Glover Hospital.

Tuberculosis Program

During 1972 there was a rise in the number of tuberculosis patients in Needham; seven patients were hospitalized at the Norfolk and Middlesex County Hospitals and 4 diagnoses of active tuberculosis were made. The staff gave 1772 TB-screening tests to school children, school and nursery school personnel, and nursing home employees. TB surveillance required 212 home vists. There were 37 trips made to the Norfolk County Hospital in Braintree to take X-rays.

Day Care Centers

The Board of Health is responsible for the licensing and inspection of nursery schools and day care centers. There are 11 licensed day care centers in Needham.

Health Guidance

Families needing financial aid now obtain assistance under the provisions of Medicaide. Our nurses made 223 visits to the mothers of new babies and 160 visits to homes for health guidance.

Environmental Health

The Sanitarian is Needham's environmental specialist. He inspects restaurants, dairies and other food-dispensing establishents as well as attending to problems of sewage disposal and air pollution. The following is a partial listing of duties performed by the Sanitarian during 1972:

-189 inspections of subsurface sewage disposal systems
-101 food service establishment inspections
-6 milk pasteurization plant and soft drink beverage plant inspections and consultations for licensing

-35 rodent, animal and insect inspections and demolition permit consultations
-38 solid waste complaints investigated
-18 miscellaneous general nuisance complaints and investigations
-12 housing complaints, consultations and related activities
-9 Rosemary Beach inspections and consultations
-85 swimming pool inspections and consultations for installation or permits

Nutritionist

The Nutrition Program works in close cooperation with Needham physicians and schools, Glover Hospital, the Well Child Conference, Council on Aging, Community Health Education Program and social service agencies. The Nutrition Program includes comsultations with patients referred for therapeutic diets, participation in health education programs and teaching clinics, and the Traveling Meals Program.

Diet Therapy

Patients in need of diet therapy are referred to the Nutritionist by Needham physicians, nurses from the Visiting Nurse Association, and the Home Health Care Team of Glover Hospital. Diet instruction is individual. In the past year 1411 diet therapy conferences were conducted. Of this number 159 were new referrals and 1139 were return visits. In addition, 61 home visits were made. An effective procedure has been developed for follow-up of discharged hospital patients in cooperation with Glover's dietician.

Community Education Program

The following Health Education Programs were carried out in cooperation with the Continuing Care Program of the Glover Memorial Hospital and the Visiting Nurse Association:

- Arthritis and Rheumatism
- Emergency Breathing Techniques
- Health, Food, and Obesity
- Stress and Strain

A Keep Well Nutrition Clinic was developed this year in conjunction with the Senior Adult Center assisted by the Visiting Nurse Association. This clinic was conducted bi-monthly at Linden Street Recreation Center. Newspaper articles on food and nutrition facts are submitted by the Nutritionist and published in local newspapers.

Traveling Meals Program

The Traveling Meals Program has been operating in Needham since 1971. It has served a total of 2817 meals through November 1972, with the participation of 58 individuals. An average of 12 to 14 meals are served each day, packaged and delivered by volunteers. The Nutritionist serves as a member of the Steering Committee and consultant to the program.

Mosquito Control Project

The Needham Mosquito Control Project was carried on effectively by the Public Works Department. This project supplements work done by the Norfolk County Mosquito Control Project.

Dental Clinic

The Needham Dental Clinic serves children whose families meet financial requirements set by the Board. Our Dental Clinic is carried on in space rented a 1233a Highland Ave. Statistics for 1972 indicate 147 patients, 528 fillings, 389 X-ray films, 60 treatments, 32 extractions, 201 cleanings, and 197 fluoride treatments. The total number of patient visits through December 1972 is 640.

Dog Clinics

The annual clinic for immunization against rabies was held in May 1972; a total of 610 dogs were given anti-rabies vaccine. The vaccine is effective for a 2-year period. There were 106 dog bites reported in 1972. Since 1970, it has been required by law that all dogs be vaccinated every 2 years. We wish to remind the townspeople of this law and to emphasize the importance of having dogs immunized at our clinic each spring. Evidence of vaccination must be shown before a license can be issued by the Town Clerk.

In 1797 the 1656-½ acre Needham Leg (or End) section is permanently annexed to Natick in return for which Needham received a portion of Natick's Bullard's Pond (Lake Waban).

In 1972 the Board of Trustees received a completed report from Anthony J. J. Rourke, Inc., a firm of hospital consultants. This report included recommendations for meeting Needham's hospital needs now and in the next 10 to 20 years. Recommendations covered every facet of hospital functions and facilities. Task committees were formed which included members of the Board of Trustees, medical staff and administration. They are examining the consultants' recommendations and are considering other aspects of medical care trends which pertain to Needham.

HOSPITAL MEDICAL STAFF

In 1972, 36 new members joined the medical staff. This makes a total of 242 on the medical and dental staff (including the emergency coverage staff), an all-time high. During the year eight members resigned.

Needham Emergency Medical Corporation (NEMCO) completed its first full year of operation in 1972. NEMCO provides full-time in-hospital physician emergency coverage for the emergency department and for in-patients in urgent need. This round-the-clock medical service fills a definite need in the community, offering townspeople the security of knowing that highly qualified care is available immediately in emergencies. In addition to the physician present in the hospital, each of the specialty groups has a physician on a stand-by basis.

In the fall of 1972 the medical staff, Board of Trustees and administration established an anesthesia department staffed by three anesthesiologists with excellent educational and experience qualifications.

Through a limited affiliation with Tufts University Medical School a successful teaching program for four 2nd-year students was established at Glover. This was made possible by a number of medical staff members who taught on a voluntary basis.

PROFESSIONAL CARE SERVICES

Statistics are given on a January-through-November basis. Figures for 1972 average approximately the same as 1971: patients admitted—3,150; patient days—24,000; percentage of occupancy—79%

Total outpatient visits were up 8% over 1971. There has been a steady increase of outpatient visits in the past 4 years. In 1969 the total was 23,845; in 1970—25,531; in 1971—29,942; and in 1972—32,351, showing a 35% increase in 1972 over 1969. This year laboratory tests increased 12% over 1971; visits to physical therapy—9%; emergency department—7%; X-ray—5%.

Inpatient treatments in physical therapy in the rehabilitation medicine department went up 106%; 4,454 in 1972 over 2,159 in 1971. Combined with outpatient treatments of 3,816 in 1972, the overall number of patients given physical therapy totaled 8,270.

Glover's blood bank received renewal of full accreditation for another 3-year term by the American Association of Blood Banks.

This year the Intensive Care Unit was expanded with a separate section of two beds for surgical patients added to the unit's four-bed coronary care facility.

The Social Service Department continues to help patients make full use of medical care, both preventive and therapeutic, so they may achieve full physical, emotional and social adjustment. This department is concerned with the effect of illness not only on the patient himself, but also on his family; it attempts to prevent deterioration of the family unit. Social service is available to hospitalized patients and their families. This is another facet of total care for the ill.

SCHOOL AFFILIATIONS

Glover maintains a School of Radiologic Technology in cooperation with Northeastern University. Northeastern students as well as students from the Blue Hills Regional Technical Institute and Southeastern Regional Technical School receive practical training in our clinical laboratory in preparation for becoming clinical laboratory assistants.

Sixteen students from Needham High School have been participating as Nursing Cadets in the Community Classroom Program at the hospital. Besides training as nurse's aides, the students have had opportunities to work or observe in the X-ray, laboratory, rehabilitation medicine, inhalation therapy and dietary departments. Of the six students who graduated last June, all entered colleges or special schools for education in a health profession as a result of their experience at Glover.

OTHER HEALTH ACTIVITIES

The hospital continues to share its facilities with many community organizations, including Smokers Anonymous and Alcoholics Anonymous. The rubella, glaucoma, well-baby and cancer clinics were held at the hospital as well as the Needham Red Cross bloodmobiles. Educational seminars, many in conjunction with the Needham Board of Health and the Needham Visiting Nurse Association, were offered to the public on the following subjects: arthritis and rheumatism; cardiopulmonary resuscitation; expectant parenthood, health, food and obesity; and stress and strain.

The Norfolk Adult Mental Health Center and the Geriatric Memory Clinic continue to operate in the former Nurses' Home.

NEW EQUIPMENT

Purchases of major importance in 1972 included a cardiopulmonary resuscitation crash cart for the emergency department; 3 aspiration sets; a slide stainer for multiple testing and a microscope for the laboratory; a new nuclear scanner for radiology; and a telemetry device for monitoring ambulatory cardiac patients outside the intensive care unit. (See the next paragraph on the Hospital Aid Association for additional equipment.)

GLOVER MEMORIAL HOSPITAL AID ASSOCIATION

1972 was a most successful year for the Hospital Aid Association, both in service and in financial assistance to the hospital.

Over $12,500 was contributed to the hospital, primarily for equipment including a weighing scale for bedridden patients, a cauterization machine, two anesthesia ventilators, a heart monitor and a fiber-optic endocolonscope. In addition, the Aid's Lobby Shop presented a $7,500 check to the hospital. Besides profits from the Coffee Shop and the Lobby Shop, the major fund sources are the annual Spring Ball, food fair and membership dues.

The adult and teenage volunteer programs, supported and sponsored by the Aid, provided well over 20,000 hours of service in many areas of the hospital. Glover's volunteer service compares favorably with, and in many cases exceeds, those of larger hospitals.

In conjunction with the in-service education department, the Aid's Health Careers Program presented a playlet "This is Your Hospital" to students and school guidance counselors. This playlet, presented twice, depicted the many career opportunities available in the health field.

This year the Aid increased its scholarship fund from $500 to $1,000. A senior boy and girl interested in a health career and accepted by an accredited college were each awarded a $500 scholarship.

Housing Authority

Chapter 200 of the Acts of 1948 was enacted by the General Court to provide housing for veterans with low incomes. Under the jurisdiction of the Needham Housing Authority, 80 veterans and their families are housed in low-cost single-family homes. Eight veterans have moved during the past year.

Improvements during the year as needed, were as follows: replacement of electric ranges, replacement of a formica counter top, installation of kitchen sink cabinets, installation of baseboard heating systems to replace radiant heating, installation of oil burner units, installation of asphalt swale at Memorial Circle, re-roofing where required, remodeling bathrooms, correcting erosion problem and purchase of a new maintenance vehicle to replace old one.

The incorporation of Needham found one woman receiving public aid, having been assisted since 1694. Money was raised for her by Sunday collections.

Official meeting place of the Authority changed from 286 Linden St. to the new office at 164 Linden St.

All security deposits were returned to tenants in the Needham High Rock Veterans Development in accordance with a directive from the Department of Community Affairs.

Chapter 667 of the Acts of 1954 was enacted by the General Court to provide housing for low-income elderly persons. Since the rental rates are relatively low, there would be a deficit if not for an annual subsidy paid by the Commonwealth.

The completion of 80 additional units makes a present total of 152 apartments for the elderly, housing a total of 167 tenants. Also included in our new construction is a community building and maintenance facility.

Improvements at Linden Terrace were as follows: resurfacing of existing walks and parking areas, erection of acoustical cement block wall around transformer, and exterior painting.

We thank sincerely the numerous Needham organizations which contributed services to our tenants during the past year.

Dexter Marsh, Ralph Chambers and Richie Stevens help Judith Benson move into one of the new housing units.

Library Trustees

After the loss by fire of nearly all of the books of the Needham Library Assoc., the town voted to have a public library and designated it, on March 19, 1888, the Needham Free Public Library...

Change and innovation were the keynotes of 1972 for the Needham Public Library. Within 2 months, the library lost the services of the two members of the Board of Trustees who had served the longest. The Trustees and library staff were saddened by the death of Mr. Fred Atchinson on April 5, 1972. Mr. Atchinson was a faithful, conscientious Library Trustee for 27 years. At a meeting of the Board of Selectmen and Library Trustees on April 25, Mr. Robert Hall, Jr. was appointed to fill Mr. Atchinson's position. In May 1972, the library and Trustees again lost a long-term board member; Miss Laura G. Willgoose, a dedicated and devoted Library Trustee for 38 years, retired because of ill-health. Mrs. Roma Brown was appointed by the Trustees and Selectmen to fill the vacancy. The library and Board of Trustees wish to take this opportunity to express their sincere gratitude for Miss Willgoose's and Mr. Atchinson's years of devoted service.

Staff changes also took place. Mrs. Carol Billings, Library Assistant, resigned during the summer and her position was filled by Miss Patricia Feeney. Miss Eleanor Sherman, Library Assistant, resigned to attend La Salle Junior College, and was replaced by Mrs. Eileen O'Connell.

Among library innovations for 1972 was the addition of tape cassettes to the library's media collection; the library now owns 349 tape cassettes which circulate along with cassette players. There is a "Give and Take" table for browsing where patrons may donate and trade books, magazines, and paperbacks. In the fall a new library column, the "N. P. L. Librettos," appeared in the local newspapers. "Librettos" has elicited many comments and compliments. After months of planning, a Friends of the Needham Library Group is underway with a committee organizing a program for the next National Library Week. Definite plans have been made for opening the library on Sunday afternoons in 1973. Preparations have been completed for circulating a collection of framed art prints. The foreign language collection took on a new look with a subscription to PONTA (Popular New Titles from Abroad). This foreign book acquisitions program provided new high-interest books in French, German, Italian, and Spanish, and offers foreign language readers the opportunity of keeping in touch with new books from abroad. High school and college students are finding it a helpful supplement to their language courses.

In April the Children's Room of the Needham Public Library appeared on the TV program "Romper Room." Mrs. Laurie Perkins, Children's Librarian, welcomed her viewers and took them on a tour of the Children's Room. Under the direction of Mrs. Gerlach and Mrs. Perkins, assisted by Miss Karen Thornton, the Children's Room is an exciting place. The winter, spring, and fall story hours for 3-, 4- and 5-year olds continue to be filled to capacity. This year two half-hour story sessions for 3-year olds have been held weekly to satisfy the demand. Two story hours for 4- and 5-year olds have also been held weekly. During July and August over one thousand children enjoyed the 3-times-a-week story hours and on several occasions broke all records for story-hour attendance. A particularly popular program was given on puppets and puppet plays by Mrs. Eleanor Bolan of Newton. Over 300 children signed up for the summer reading program, and 100 of these read 20 or more books to receive a reading certificate of merit. Two story hours were held each month from October through May for older children. These story hours were built around themes such as Halloween fun or dinosaurs, and included stories, films, games, and activities.

All fourth graders in Needham public schools came to the Children's Room for an hour session on using the library. Instruction included finding reading and reference materials, and looking up information in the card catalog.

The Junior Librarians proved to be most helpful this past year. The group has been limited to 12 active members who work in pairs one afternoon a week. They straighten shelves, cut out pictures for the picture file, stuff envelopes for mailing and do many other varied housekeeping tasks.

The Children's Room may have a "first" in owning and operating a loan service for a traveling dinosaur. Several years ago Sinclair Oil Company gave the Needham Library their trademark, a green dinosaur. Needham children have enjoyed "Roger" in story hours and on display in the Children's Room. This year we shared "Roger" with other libraries in the Eastern Regional Library System. He is transported in the regional truck, has enthralled children in Dedham and is traveling on to Framingham. If you happen to see a green dinosaur in a pickup van on Route 128 one day—that is probably "Roger" from Needham.

The adult department receives heavy usage, particularly its reference service. The business reference area is used on a regular basis by many patrons and Needham business firms. Overnight circulation of reference books has increased considerably. The cooperation of patrons in returning material on time is excellent, and the loss of materials is negligible.

Instruction in library usage was offered on an individual and group basis. Mrs. Ann Sell, Reference Librarian, with the cooperation of the Needham Adult Education Program, conducted the Library Workshop, a series of four sessions which acquainted class members with the use of reference materials. Three high school classes visited the library for individual reference instruction.

Sophomores from the High School visit the Library for a seminar in history. Standing: Anne Sell, Reference Librarian; Christopher Hatch; Steve Kropper. Seated: Cindy Montgomery.

This year Mrs. Sell has begun the immense task of indexing the Needham newspapers. These are available on microfilm, but without an index it is difficult to locate articles and information. Mrs. Sell is indexing all current local newspapers and, when time permits, will index those of past years. Hopefully, this will be the basis for an updated history of Needham. Clarke's history covers the town up to 1911, and there is a serious need for a history from that date up to the present.

Mr. Hicks of the Needham School Department brought high school students who are studying Needham history to the Reference Department. A study session was held on locating historical materials, particulary those concerning local history. Mrs. Sell went over town records, vital statistics and genealogical references.

The Town Report Committee expresses its appreciation to the Library and the Historical Society for aid in preparing this report. Reference: "History of Needham by George K. Clarke.

Reference librarians answer reference questions, give instructions in the use of the reference department, and purchase reference material. They also handle interlibrary loans, talking-books, magazines, audio-visual programs, and schedule activities for the Community Room. Miss Ann MacFate is the Reference Librarian in charge of these activities.

Inter-library loan service has improved since the Eastern Regional Library System was adopted. The Needham Library requested from regional headquarters 232 books for Needham residents and in turn loaned 169 books to other libraries.

As a member of the Eastern Region, the library has access to the fine film collection of the Boston Public Library. Last year the Needham Library borrowed 315 films for local community organizations and 93 films for its own programs.

One of the library's most popular programs has been the Noontime Movies Program held Wednesdays from 12-2 in January, February, March, October and November. This program offers an opportunity to view films on a variety of subjects including travel, art, nature, sports, sociology, adventure, and silent films.

There were 85 community meetings scheduled this year in the library's Community Room.

The library prepared booklists on a variety of subjects including learning disabilities, light summer reading, and love stories. A list of the books in the large print collection was prepared on a large print typewriter to aid selection, and are available on request. A list of Talking Books is also available. The NPL now has 492 talking books, of which 185 circulated during 1972.

The Books-By-Mail program is designed for shut-ins and older citizens. Books are requested by telephone or prepaid post card, and the library then mails them to borrowers free of charge. During 1972, 55 books were mailed to shut-ins in Needham.

The Youth Section under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Hill had a busy year. The annual library orientation program for 6th graders began in April and ended in June. Each 6th grade in the Needham public and parochial schools was brought to the library and given an introductory tour of the Youth, Reference and Adult collections. At this time, Youth or "Y" cards were issued. The schools and school libraries have continued to cooperate in giving the library advance notice of special assignments and projects, and the Newman Junior High School Book Club has entered its third successful year. In September, the library had a coffee to introduce new teachers to the library staff and to library resources. Approximately 12 Boy Scouts received assistance in qualifying for Reading Merit Badges.

This year the Needham Library continued its book deposits at Linden Terrace, Hamilton House, the Senior Center at the Town Hall, and added two more; one at the Daystar Home and one at Briarwood Convalescent and Retirement Center. These various book deposits are serviced by the Librarian, Mrs. Vivian McIver, and Branch Librarian, Mrs. Margaret Packard.

The Catalog and Circulation Departments spent a productive year. The Catalog Department, under the direction of Miss Susan Park, assisted by Miss Jean Friswell, cataloged a total of 7,026 books, 400 cassette tapes and records, and 50 art prints. The Circulation Department under the supervision of Mrs. Cynthia Crawford supervised the circulation of books and other materials, overdue notices, reserve books, bills and bookkeeping.

The Needham Library receives inquiries about its collection of N. C. Wyeth paintings from all over the country. Two Wyeth paintings, America's Greatest Wealth, and The Artist's Mother, were in the Newell Convers Wyeth Exhibition at the Brandywine River Museum from May 20 until October 15. This exhibit was visited by Mr. Raymond Bosworth, Chairman of the Library Board of Trustees, Mrs. Bosworth, and a library staff member, Miss Jean Friswell. The library has acquired a new Wyeth painting which will be on view soon.

The Librarian and Trustees wish to thank the library staff for its efforts in carrying on the library's extensive program. Sincere appreciation is also extended to the people of Needham for their continued support of the Needham Public Library.

Memorial Park Trustees

In 1972, the Memorial Park has received more use than ever before. In addition to the previous year's activities which have increased, we have had activities such as the Boy Scout Festival. Many volunteers donated their time to cook and serve thousands of pancakes, profiting the Boy Scouts of the town.

The school use of the park has been heavier than usual to the extent that different departments were requesting the same areas at the same time. With the added parking of students' cars in the lot, we experienced some trouble in having the proper area for the band to march. Although the Trustees had an area marked for the band in the parking lot with the help of the Public Works, the advent of the open campus and its additional cars soon covered the area. This has since been remedied and we are anticipating hearing the usual fine band which we always have had.

The main field has had so much activity that it is the hope that this year's town meeting will approve funds for the resodding of the center area. It is to be acknowledged that Bob Harris, with the PWD did an excellent job in restoring the cinder track and the park now has, in addition, a permanent running broad jump, pole vault, high jump and shot put area. This has long been needed and the town can look forward to better track and field events on our home field in the future.

With the interdepartmental cooperation of the other town agencies, citizens are still being entertained on warm summer nights with band concerts which many have enjoyed.

The Memorial Park Trustees have started to compile the names of all the men who have served in the Armed Forces during the years of the Viet Nam conflict. When this war is over, we plan to place their names beside their predecessors. Many of our townsmen do not realize that the Trustees have all of the names of the veterans from the French and Indian war to the present.

The Trustees, together with interested groups and individuals are hoping to rededicate a permanent area in commemoration to all service men and women to which our town owes a debt of gratitude.

Jonathan Parker, a member of the East Company's militia, literally left his plough in the field to answer the call in 1775. He lived near Charles River Street and was killed by the British during their retreat from Concord.

Parks and Recreation Commission

"What makes a nation in the beginning is a good piece of geography," said Robert Frost. Our community is particularly fortunate to have acquired this "good piece of geography" in the beginning; it is now Needham's concern to preserve and enhance all our valuable property. The Parks and Recreation Commission is developing and utilizing its park areas with this primary philosophy: effective scheduling is imperative to the total growth and preservation of all recreational programs.

The Parks and Recreation Commission formally dedicated the Rosemary Lake swimming facility in 1972. As is expected with the opening of any new facility, there were some problems such as delayed construction, downwash from a tremendous thunderstorm, and registration lines. Some problems were resolved immediately, while the remainder will be rectified by the 1973 swimming season. The Rosemary Lake Reclamation and Building Committee has provided Needham residents with an innovative concept in recreational pools and has plans to update bathhouse and restroom structures in the near future. The Commission is proud to have served 39,000 people and provided an income over $23,800 to defray maintenance and supervisory costs.

Mr. Mike G. Rozos, the Commission's first full-time director, resigned in April to accept a position in North Miami, Florida. Mr. Rozos had been instrumental in broadening the scope of the P&R activities during his stay in Needham and his contributions are greatly appreciated by the community. Mr. Stephan Raymond of LaPorte, Indiana was selected as his successor, assuming his duties here in July. In the short span of 6 months he has shown professional leadership which assures the continued growth of the P&R programs.

The 1972 Town Meeting approved the planned construction of three playing fields (soccer, baseball and football) in the Norris Farm area. This project, designated as phase I of a three-phase program, was completed in the fall; it is hoped that these fields will be ready for use by the fall of 1973. Future phase proposals will be developed jointly with the School Committee and presented to Town Meeting for approval.

One of the Commission's most significant actions involved a 4.1 acre parcel of land at the Old Mill Site on the Charles River. This acreage was purchased by a group of dentists for an oral health center but the MDC decided to take the land by eminent domain action for conservation and passive recreation purposes. Massachusetts General Laws required approval by a majority vote of the P&R Commission. The Commissioners held hearings and reviewed information on both sides of the subject before voting by a margin of 3-2 to uphold the MDC land-taking.

During the summer the Commission closed the Teen Center for a critical review of its objectives and programs. With a revised program under a new title—Youth Center—we have appealed to many new young people in the community. The program is developing new and exciting activities while providing a place for non-structured activity.

This fall the Commission introduced three new classes for women and girls; womens' exercise, ballet and modern dance. These programs broaden the spectrum of the Commission's programming; they are an innovation in filling the leisure time needs of all citizens. The need for more womens' and girls' programs is evident, and the Commission will be giving more attention to this recreational area.

The Commission is most appreciative to the tremendous support of its staff, other town departments, and volunteers. The Rosemary Lake Reclamation and Building Committee members spent many hours of dedicated effort so that townspeople would have a place to swim this past summer, and now continue to work towards improving the facilities and reclaiming the lake itself. Many other volunteers served in a variety of programs.

Inter-town agency cooperation resulted in efficient programming and utilization of town areas. Bob MacEwen and Jack Marr have set the pace at the Department of Public Works and their "can-do" attitude prevails throughout their staff. The Grounds Division of DPW was especially effective in maintaining our facilities. Bill Powers, Jim Maloney, John Daley and the school custodians provided outstanding cooperation in joint use of school grounds and buildings. The Youth Commission made timely suggestions to the Youth Center and augmented our playground staff with personnel from the Neighborhood Youth Corps. Finally, the Police and Fire Departments contributed time and affort in bolstering many of our programs.

Future goals of the Parks and Recreation Commission will be:

1. To interest service groups of all types in beautifying and equipping Parks and Recreation grounds.
2. To offer more programmed activities for women and girls.
3. To develop new playfield areas, such as Phases II and III at Norris Farm.
4. To provide additional playground equipment for pre-school children throughout the community.
5. To beautify all our parks and playgrounds with shrubs, bushes and flowers.

It is the sincere desire of the P&R Commission to plan with the people, not for them. We welcome both suggestions and criticisms.

Receipts for programs and certain public facilities contributed a total of over $50,000 to the town treasury—an increase of $23,000 since 1971. This was the equivalent of one-third of our total operating budget.

Nineteen hundred seventy-two was a year of goal setting, of planning new programs, and modifying existing ones to meet those goals. It was a year of excitement—of varied learning activities. It was a year of action—of enthusiastic participation by our human resources, both school and community, for the improvement of education for the children of Needham.

This annual report, in addition to giving pertinent data, is designed to highlight the educational program.

THE ALTERNATIVE PROGRAM AND THE COMMUNITY CLASSROOM PROGRAM at the high school have entered the second stage of viable and meaningful experiences for youngsters. Of the 54 seniors in the Alternative Program who graduated in June, all 30 students who applied to post-secondary institutions were accepted. Six of the 12 national merit semi-finalists from Needham High School were enrolled in the Alternative Program.

Evaluation of the program is on-going. Current plans call for a formal evaluation to be presented to the School Committee in June 1973.

THE COMMUNITY CLASSROOM PROGRAM, which provides community service as well as meaningful occupational experience for students, has shown remarkable progress. The enrollments in the program, encompassing vocational study, teacher cadet and independent study over 3 years are:

	Vocational Study	Teacher Cadet	Independent Study
1970	45	8	6
1971	95	45	43
1971	150	150	50

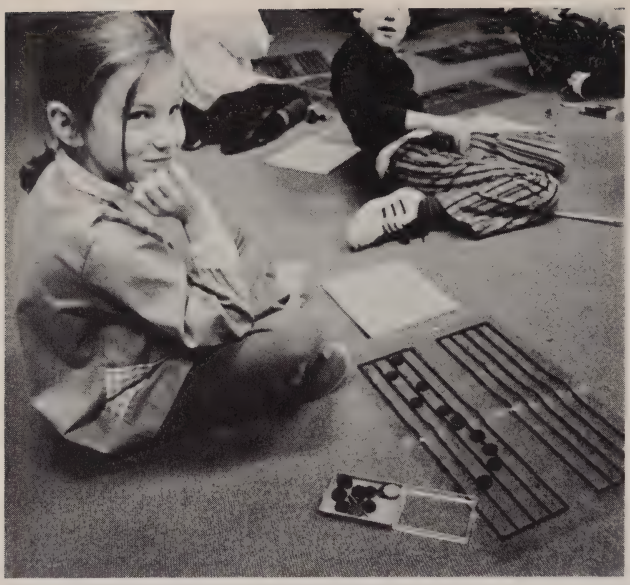
OPEN CAMPUS: This organizational structure is a facsimile of the college model; students are responsible for attending scheduled classes and may take advantage of other education experiences as well. The plan was conceived, designed and communicated to students and parents before implementation in the fall of 1972. Parental approval was a requirement for participation. Out of a total of 1881 students, 1756 registered for the privilege of Open Campus. After nearly 4 months of operation, only five students have been removed at the request of their parents. Students are also withdrawn from Open Campus for one marking period (9 weeks) if they receive one or more failing grades for the preceding marking period. Strict attendance is required and punctuality and attendance has improved as a result.

ARENA SCHEDULING is another new feature patterned after the collegiate model. Students select their own courses, teachers, and class periods, seniors having priority. This is done in a large room or "arena." Some students, especially sophomores, had difficulty getting their course preferences. A modified version designed to alleviate this problem will be introduced next year.

MINI-COURSES: The Open Campus privilege did not bring about an exodus of students from the school into the community. In fact, most students remained on campus during their unscheduled free time with their friends in the "lounge" (cafeteria), the library or study hall. High-interest mini-courses and activities have been introduced to encourage productive use of leisure time. Sixty-five teachers and seven community sponsors have volunteered to conduct activities of this nature.

ENGLISH ELECTIVE CURRICULUM: This program, encompassing 56 quarter and semester courses, was initiated in September with considerable success. The elements of choice and flexibility have particular appeal to the students. One student who lacked English credits for graduation was able to carry four separate quarter courses simultaneously to make up the deficiency. Teachers were also elated. A typical comment: "It's so great to have kids in class who want to be there because they can tailor their program to meet their needs and interests." This program will undergo careful evaluation and a report will be submitted to the School Committee at the conclusion of the school year.

FINE ARTS: Art and music have been revitalized at the junior high schools by restructuring them into high-interest quarter and semester-length courses. Further exploration is taking place to determine the desirability of blending art and music into a fine arts program.



The smile of Julie Weener, a second grade student at Carter, reveals enthusiasm for an exciting experience in music, the Kodaly program. (The boy is Daniel Soltzberg.)

ELEMENTARY FOREIGN LANGUAGE: This program was re-evaluated and modified this year to include Spanish as well as French on an elective basis in grades 4-6. (Grade 3 was deleted.) Enrollment in these grades amounted to 1444 (710 in French and 734 in Spanish), 89% of all children in grades 4, 5 and 6. The program will undergo further evaluation this year.

ELEMENTARY SCIENCE, an exciting new program which stresses student activity and experimentation, is now in its second phase of implementation. Only grades K-2 remain to complete the third phase in September 1973.

CAREER EDUCATION: A study has been initiated to provide exploration and guidance for career choices at all levels. It includes occupational skills training, exploration in "job clusters" such as secretarial, maintenance or health services, pre-technical education at the secondary level, and upgrading and retraining opportunities. An unusual feature of this effort is that it is being directed and coordinated by The Education Cooperative (T.E.C.), a regional cooperative consisting of nine cities and towns, of which Needham is one.

SPECIAL EDUCATION: The passage of a new law covering special education (Chapter 766) will take effect in September 1974. The State Department of Education issued a set of guidelines for the placement and evaluation of children with learning problems. More specific guidelines for the implementation of the guidelines are now being developed. The intent of the law is to evaluate thoroughly the special needs of children with learning problems, to develop more individualized programs for these children, and to move them into and keep them in the mainstream of school life insofar as it is possible. A citizens' advisory committee has been appointed by the School Committee. The primary function of this committee is to consider problems, assess programs, make recommendations for program improvement, and to promote communication between schools and community.

LEARNING DISABILITIES: This program was expanded considerably during 1972. From January to December the number of children receiving instruction rose from 90 to 150, and the number of instructors from 12 to 20. According to their needs, these children receive one-to-one tutoring 3 hours per week, instruction in groups of two or three for 3 hours per week, or are grouped in classes of six or fewer for 3 hours each day.

SCREENING TEAMS: Since September all children with learning problems in the elementary schools have been screened by teams of teachers, specialists, and other professional people. Also, to facilitate early identification of learning problems, all teachers from K-3 are coopating in a systematic assessment of factors related to each child's learning behavior.

There are a number of other activities and programs that received particular impetus in 1972 which could not be given adequate description in the annual report. To name a few:

-Public opinion survey: an opinion poll was taken this year on a variety of topics including the overall school situation, staff, curriculum, discipline, public relations and the cost of financing schools. This valuable survey, "How Citizens Feel About Their Schools," was conducted by Dr. George Madaus (at practically no expense to the town) and volunteers from the League of Women Voters who ably assisted with the interviews.

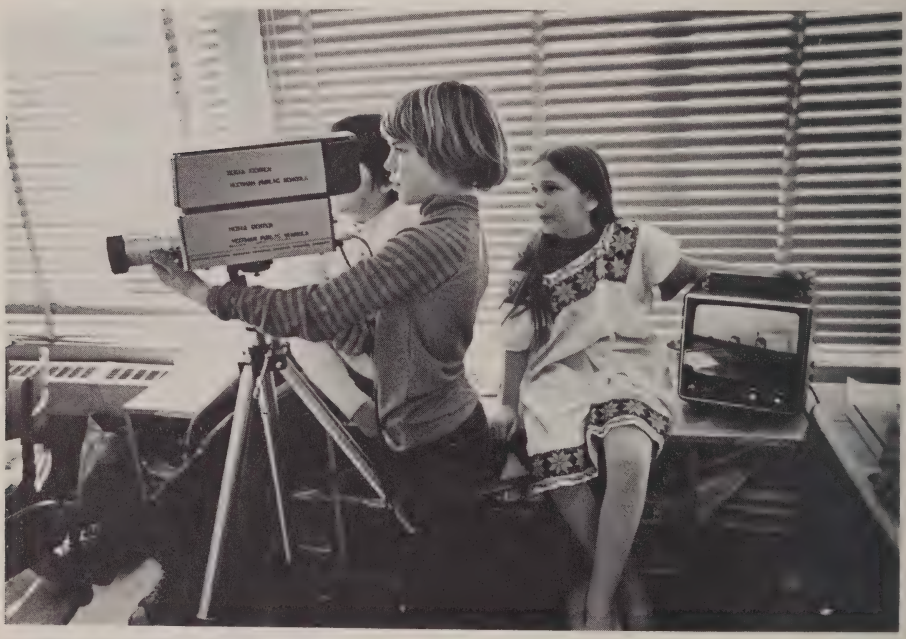
As early as 1827 the town bought many schoolbooks and made due returns to the assessors, who added the sum to the father's tax bill. The school report of 1839 urged the introduction of music into all of the schools; within three years this recommendation was adopted and was a success.

-Continuing Education and the Community School: These concepts, adopted by the School Committee, are at various stages of planning and implementation. For example, high school credit courses are now offered in expanded adult evening and summer school programs, the high school day has been extended and made more flexible, community educational and recreational activities in the schools are being expanded resulting in better utilization of school facilities and resources.

-The House Plan at Pollard: An attempt was made to decentralize and to improve communication by creating three schools within a school.

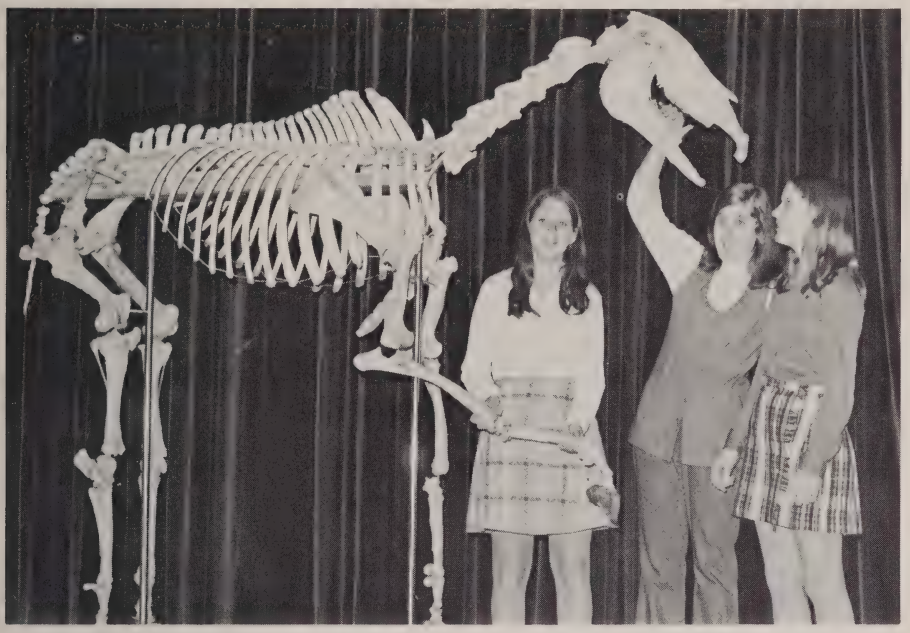
-Behavioral Objectives: This year marked the beginning of an extensive evaluative process which describes what students will be able to do after completing a prescribed unit of instruction. This will provide a sound basis for curriculum assessment.

-Health Education: This program has been revitalized this year with emphasis on drug education, education for sexuality, safety, values, nutrition and dental care.



A student camerman, Andrew Stewart, records on video tape a student production in a Broadmeadow sixth grade classroom. He is ably assisted by Cynthia Wallack, who is in charge of the monitor. The equipment provides instant replay as well as standard viewing.

-Grading and reporting to parents: New approaches to the elementary grading system are being explored in several schools. Narrative reports coupled with parent conferences are being compared to our present system of grading.



Marion Priestly holds "Lulu Belle's" right "hand" while Elaine Alpert and Susan Priestly check her excellent tooth structure. Lulu Belle is a horse skeleton and has been featured in group demonstrations to elementary students.

-Interdisciplinary approaches, team teaching: A blending of disciplines, e.g., music-art, science-math, English-social studies, science-social studies, and the teaming of teachers associated with these approaches are more in evidence throughout the schools this year.

Parent response to the schools' invitation to perform volunteer services has been particularly gratifying. Most parent volunteers have assisted in the elementary libraries in the past. Now the areas of service have broadened to include the classroom. Secretarial and nursing services are also being expanded.

A comparative analysis over the past 3 years:

	1970	1971	1972
Parent Volunteers	325	391	496
High School Cadets	0	60	105
College Student Teachers		83	61
Paid School Aides	26	27	30

In the latter 1830's education began a "Great Awakening" and by 1845 new school houses existed in nearly all districts. Comparing favorably with those in nearby towns, the schools had blinds, some were painted, and they were equipped with stoves and the sills banked for the winter.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL ASSOCIATION - SCHOOL DEPARTMENT STUDY ON INNOVATION: This report, nearly 3 years in the making, was accepted by the School Committee in July. It included guidelines for innovative programs and recognized promising innovative practices in Needham and other towns. Several policy recommendations were made which included expanded professional growth activities, provision for time and funds to support these activities, and the establishment of a Committe on Innovation to assess progress.

THE FACILITIES PLANNING ADVISORY COMMITTEE, a subcommittee for the School Committee, has been meeting regularly for 2 years assessing elementary school plant requirements in terms of immediate and long-range programs. This committee has collaborated with the Future School Needs Committee, and a joint report will be submitted to the Town Meeting in March 1973.

GOALS FOR THE 70'S: Goal-setting is a continuing and vital function in determining the direction of education. Members of the administrative staff re-examined this process last year and presented a position paper on educational goals for the 70's. Coincidentally, a State Department of Education survey was conducted shortly thereafter in which present and proposed local programs were assessed in light of the educational goals for Massachusetts. Although these projects were separate and unrelated, the state survey provided stimulus and input in planning our own long-range educational goals.

ELEMENTARY SUBSYSTEM: A new management team concept was designed this year to promote communication and to pool resources and talent. Two sub-systems were created, approximately equal in pupil enrollment, each encompassing five elementary schools. The East system includes Broadmeadow, Harris, Mitchell, Carter and Eliot schools. The West system incorporates the Hillside, Highland, Dwight, Stephen Palmer and High Rock schools. The principals of Eliot and High Rock are acting as chairmen of their respective management teams.

The management team concept also includes instructional assistants in each school except Harris. The larger schools, Mitchell and Hillside, have two each. The primary responsibility of the assistants is to work with their colleagues for the improvement of instruction. Each is a full-time classroom teacher and an important agent in the change process.

DIFFERENTIATED STAFFING, a concept of organization that seeks to make better use of educational personnel, offers a wealth of human resources in Needham for program improvement and assistance of individual students. It is designed to complement, not supplement, the professional teaching staff. Differentiated staffing takes many forms: instructional assistants, paid classroom aides, paid school aides assisting in the cafeterias, offices, and on playgrounds, paraprofessionals in media services, college student teachers, high school teacher cadets, parent volunteers, and citizens as resource persons.

ENROLLMENTS: There has been considerable speculation about declining enrollments in the past several years and how this affects staffing. The official memberships (enrollments) in October 1 of each year, with the numbers and percentages of decrease or increase from the previous years are as follows:

	1969	1970		1971		1972
	Enrl.	Enrl.	% of Inc. Decr.	Enrl.	% of Inc. Decr.	Enrl.	% of Inc. Decr.
Elem.	4020	3870	—3.7%	3745	—3.2%	3709	—1.0%
Jr. Hi.	1851	1892	+2.2%	1916	+1.3%	1924	+0.4%
Sr. Hi.	1701	1840	+8.2%	1846	+0.3%	1897	+2.8%
	7572	7602		7507		7530

This table shows a decline of only 42 students in the total enrollment for a 3-year period. However, the Future School Needs Committee projections on pupil enrollment indicate a more substantial downward trend, approximately 2% per year for the next 5 years.

PERSONNEL: The professional staff positions have remained fairly constant, averaging 467 for the past 3 years. Supportive personnel increased by seven (3.2%) in 1970, but has remained constant since then.

Needham's holding power is good, even impoving. There was a 12% turnover this past school year as compared to a 16.1% a year ago. This decrease is significant since the number of retirees increased by 27% during the same period.

Resignations amounted to 56 this year, a drop of 19 or 25% from the previous year.

RETIREMENTS: An epoch in the history of the Needham School Department ended with the retirement of John J. Daley, Superintendent of Building and Grounds, an extraordinary person who for 50 years worked tirelessly and devotedly for the betterment of educational facilities. A tribute was paid to John Daley by the School Committee on November 28 by the adoption of the following resolution:

To John J. Daley we would attempt to express the deep appreciation of the citizens of this town, past, present, and future, who have and will benefit from the service you have contributed to our community. Endless words could be used to describe your personal attributes and your concern for the Needham schools and the Town of Needham but none singly or in concert would speak as eloquently as the existing evidence of your accomplishments. May your every dream be realized, your health protected, and our wishes for continuing friendship realized.

John J. Daley

Another key figure on the Needham educational scene retired after 19 years of service to the youth and teachers of Needham.

Leona E. Richardson

Leona E. Richardson, Elementary Education Supervisor, contributed much to the elementary program and was recognized for her talents at the state and national level.

Other retirees in 1972 include:
Mrs. Lillian Berlew, High School, English, 11 years
Mrs. Josephine Danskin, High Rock School, grade 1, 15 years
Mrs. Dorothy Fleming, Carter School, grade 2, 23 years
Mrs. Barbara Hatch, Stephen Palmer School, grade 3, 31 years
Mrs. Hazel Jones, Mitchell School. Kindergarten, 10 years
Mrs. Ursula Leaman, Newman Jr. High, Science, 25 years
Mrs. Rosalind Maddox, Mitchell School, grade 2, 11 years
Mrs. Helen Olson, High Rock School, Kindergarten, 32 years
Mrs. Mary Perry, High School, Language, 15 years
Mrs. Verna Warren, Harris School, Primary Unit, 12 years
Mrs. Esther Perrin, Pollard Jr. High, English, 13 years
Mr. Edward Perrin, Pollard Jr. High, Industrial Arts, 30 years
Mrs. Mary O'Neil, High School, Science, 16 years

A total of 313 years of service are represented in the retirements this year.

IN MEMORIAM

Anna P. Fessenden died May 3, 1972. She joined our staff in 1926 as a teacher of mathematics. In 1959 she was appointed as Director of Mathematics. She retired from our system in June 1962. Miss Fessenden was one of those outstanding teachers who will long be remembered.

Veterans' Services

Edmond B. Louglin, Jr., Agent

The Veterans' Services Agent administers a program of benefits to veterans and aid to immediate families and dependent parents of veterans.

Expenditures for age and illness of WW I and WW II veterans total approximately two-thirds of the budget.

During 1972 the Department of Veterans' Services processed over 800 cases which did not require financial aid. These included the processing of Veterans' Administration applications for veterans' pensions, widows' pensions, dependent children's benefits, educational benefits and grave headstones.

Youth Commission

The Needham Youth Commission has entered a period of transition. In so doing, we have assessed the services presently being provided and have determined that our concerns fall in the following categories: communication, coordination, quality service, and accountability.

The Youth Commission has worked vigorously to improve communications with the Police Department, School Department, Parks and Recreation Department, and other town departments, as well as local non-profit agencies. We are truly pleased with the progress in this area. There seems to be a greater understanding of the problems that each of us must face. There is a growing bond of cooperation which can only mean an increase in the quality of services to the community.

Accountability is an area that few wish to discuss. It is a feeling of the Youth Commission and staff that we are willing to stand accountable to the community for the responsibilites we assume.

The theme of the Youth Commission is "take care of our own." It is our wish to "reach out" to more young people and assist them in finding their place in the life-style of the community. We look upon "reaching out" as an opportunity to provide helpful services either in a job opportunity or counseling.

For example, when a person becomes a school dropout he could easily become depressed, lose all hope of success in life, and therefore become a drain upon the resources of the community. With the cooperation of the high school principal, all those leaving school prior to graduation are referred to the Youth Commission. Of the 12 school dropouts referred since September, 11 remaining in the community have been placed in either training programs or full-time employment.

The Youth Commission considers employment to be one of the most important services it provides. It affords the individual an opportunity to enrich himself and his community by his own productivity while receiving financial compensation for work rendered; he thus creates a place for himself in the community. During 1972, 308 young people received employment. This far exceeds the 152 youths employed in 1971.

We recognize that many young people have special needs that must be met before they can be gainfully employed. Such is the case of our handicapped youth. Through the effort of the Youth Commission, the State Department of Massachusetts Rehabilitation has accepted two handicapped young people into their employment training program. This should increase their opportunities for employment and for becoming self-supporting.

It is apparent that some young people from low-income families lack an example of parental employment success that might stimulate motivation for achievement in careers of their own. This past summer the Youth Commission directed the Neighborhood Youth Corp, a federally-funded program, which provided an opportunity for 32 young people to work during the summer months. Thirty-one persons completed the summer employment program. All Neighborhood Youth Corp members were placed in town departments or local non-profit agencies. These youths assisted with the work of each department, at no additional cost to the town, while they gained a positive work experience.

The Youth Commission has continued to direct the Driver Education and Training Program for those seeking a Class II operator's license. This license qualifies an operator for driving trucks and buses over 18,000 pounds. The Commission receives the cooperation of the Needham Department of Public Works as well as many qualified volunteer instructors. This program increases the employment potential of those participating.

REACHING OUT: One of our most important changes has been in the role of caseworker. The "Youth Worker" (a name that young people say they prefer) has been more mobile, thus increasing his visibility. In doing so, he has increased the contacts with those young people in need of support and direction. This new role seems to be more in keeping with the desires of the town as reflected in the approved job description of 1970. Already we see indications of success in that we can meet needs and thus avert serious crises. In addition, we have added to the data on youth problems in Needham which has increased the effectiveness of our decision-making.

COURT ADVOCATE PROGRAM: The Juvenile Courts have faced tremendous difficulties recently because of the increase in the number of court cases and the shortage of placements for troubled youth. In addition, we have seen the inability of the Department of Youth Services to bring about effective rehabilitation of those young people placed in their care. In some cases, those remanded to the Department of Youth Services are paroled in the community almost immediately. It is our feeling that, this being the case, we should take the responsibility from the beginning. The Court Advocate Program is an opportunity to do this. In effect, it is an agreement among the arresting officer, the Probation Officer, the Youth Commission Staff, the arrested youth and his parents. We agree to assume the responsibility for restitution while attempting to make appropriate changes in the attitude and behavior of the involved youth. This agreement is submitted in writing to the court for its approval along with periodic progress reports. The case is continued until full restitution is made.

YOUTH COUNCIL: The Youth Council has entered its fourth year of service to the community. It was decided by all those involved that an evaluation of the program was in order. A weekend workshop was recently held at Briarwood Conference Center, Bourne, Mass. to complete the evaluation. It was determined that the members wished to continue to "work toward the health and welfare of the entire town primarily through its youth."

We recognize the validity of group work with young people. It is our hope to establish many such groups in the year to come, centering the work around special interests and particular needs.

CRISIS INTERVENTION: One of the most important changes has been the Youth Commission's emergence as a crisis intervention center. Crisis intervention is an attempt to take part in an unstable or critical situation with the intent of resolving the immediate problem and making positive changes for the future. At the present, this service is not being provided by any local agency on a 24-hour basis.

Carol Quern, 1971 Miss Needham; Lisa Jodis, 1st Runner-up; Maureen Ryan, Miss Needham of 1972; Janet MacPherson, 2nd Runner-up.

This differs somewhat with the Youth Commission's original role of short- and long-term therapy. It is our belief, as well as that of local mental-health agencies, that long-term therapy could best be provided by private agencies, while the Youth Commission could obtain the necessary resources for the crisis intervention role.

Very few are aware that the Youth Commission provides a 24-hour answering service with staff members on call at all times. We wish to make our community aware of this service.

NEEDHAM YOUTH LEADERS: The Needham Youth Leaders, formerly the Leader's Luncheon, continues to act as a forum for affairs related to work with youth. In the past we have spent much of our time sharing information about what each agency is doing. Now we are beginning some in-depth dialogue on the problems that must be solved to promote meaningful youth programs.

TEEN CENTER STUDY COMMITTEE: This group was formed as a coordinated effort of the community workers supervising teen centers to discuss mutual problems, concerns and ideas. The committee meets periodically and has proved helpful in addressing itself to the difficulties facing teen centers.

ACCOUNTABILITY: Accountability is a relatively new concept in the social service field. We are moving this field from an organization of "bleeding hearts" acting as the conscience of the community to a movement of professionals attempting to solve the problems of people and community. In doing so we must establish reasonable standards by which the community can judge the performance of this department. We see the following as some of that criteria:

1. To work in a preventative manner to decrease the number of annual arrests of delinquents.
2. To decrease the number of those young people reappearing before the courts.
3. To assist school dropouts in becoming gainfully employed and productive members of the community.
4. To assist young people in discovering their talents, and testing them through meaningful employment.
5. To make staff members available at all times for crisis intervention.

Fire Alarm Boxes

(This is an official list of fire alarm boxes as provided by the Fire Department. In the event of a fire the alarm sounds the first number of the box followed by a pause, followed by the next number of the box, and so on. Thus an alarm from box 12, Needham Square would sound: BLAST. Pause. TWO BLASTS. Keep this list handy for ready reference! It is suggested that all home owners and businesses locate the box nearest their homes or establishments and acquaint all members of their families or workers with the location.)

ANNUAL TOWN MEETING FOR THE TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS

March 20, 1972

Pursuant to a Warrant issued by the Selectmen January 25, 1972 the Inhabitants of the Town of Needham qualified to vote in Town affairs met in the Derwood A. Newman Junior High School on Monday, March 20, 1972 at 7:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The checkers appointed by the Selectmen were sworn to the faithful performance of their duties by the Town Clerk.

Check lists were used and 401 voters, including 242 Town Meeting Members, were checked on the list as being present.

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 o'clock by the Moderator, Richard P. Melick. Girl Scout Carol O'Duggan and Boy Scout Richard P. Melick, Jr., presented the colors. Those present stood while David Ayars played the national anthem on the trumpet.

Reverend Peter T. Richardson, pastor of the First Parish Church (Unitarian) gave the invocation. Following this the call to the meeting and the officer's return were read by the Town Clerk, the reading of the Articles in the warrant being waived upon motion.

The Town Meeting Members were sworn to the faithful performance of their duties by the Town Clerk.

The Moderator declared a quorum to be present and requested the Town Clerk to so record. He also announced the following ground rules which were adopted unanimously.

(1) Speaker will be ruled out of order who refers to personalities. Let us remember that we are one Town Meeting family with a common goal: the best interests of the community.

(2) Rise to be recognized and address chair; speak name that Town Clerk can complete her records.

(3) Seek unanimous consent to adopt the following time limit of debate:

15 min. Committee chairmen, proponents, attorneys representing proponents

10 min. Town Meeting Members, attorneys representing other than proponents

5 min. Non-Town Meeting Members and visitors other than attorneys

(4) Your attention is drawn to the disclosure required by one employed as an attorney by another who is interested in a matter: Art. I, section 5.

The usual time limit of debate was unanimously accepted.

The Moderator announced that the proponents of Articles 58, 60 and 61 requested unanimous consent to withdraw these articles. The consent was so given.

The Moderator asked unanimous consent to omit the reading of the articles and to refer to them by number only. Any Town Meeting Member who wished to "question" or "debate" should so indicate when the number is called. Those articles on which no one called "question" or "debate" would be offered for adoption by unanimous consent.

There was no objection and the Moderator declared this method to be adopted unanimously.

Whereas those "monied" solutions proposed to this 1972 Town Meeting in Warrant Articles 43 through 47 have not been deemed practical —

It is hereby resolved that this Town Meeting urge all owners and occupants in the Crescent Road Manufacturing Area to continue to work honestly and sincerely with our fellow Townspeople in an effort to restore to that section of our Town the peaceful and harmonious relationship of Industrial and Residential Neighborhoods that has existed in the past and that copies of this resolution be made available to the news media and all known owners and occupants of the Crescent Road manufacturing zoned area through the Board of Selectmen.

Mr. Gordon A. McGill
Director of Accounts
Department of Corporations and Taxation
Boston, Massachusetts

Sir:

In accordance with your instructions, I have made an audit of the books and accounts of the town of Needham for the period from November 5, 1970, the date of the previous examination, to December 31, 1971, and report thereon as follows:

The financial transactions, as recorded on the books of the several departments receiving or disbursing money for the town or committing bills for collection, were examined, checked, and compared with the books of the town accountant and the town treasurer.

An analysis was made of the town accountant's ledger, the receipts being checked with the treasurer's books and the payments being compared with the warrants authorizing them and with the treasurer's records of payments. The appropriations and loan authorizations, as listed from the town clerk's records of town meetings, as well as the transfers from the reserve fund authorized by the finance committee, were checked with the town accountant's ledgers. A trial balance was drawn off, and, after the necessary adjustments resulting from the audit were made, a balance sheet, which is appended to this report, was prepared showing the financial condition of the town on December 31, 1971.

The books and accounts of the town treasurer were examined and checked in detail. The receipts, as recorded, were analyzed and compared with the records of the several departments collecting money for the town and with other sources from which money was paid into the town treasury, while the payments were checked with the selectmen's warrants authorizing the treasurer to disburse town funds. The cash balance on December 31, 1971 was proved by reconciliation of the bank balances with statements furnished by the banks in which town funds are deposited, by inspection of the savings bank books, and by actual count of the cash in the office.

The securities and savings bank books representing the investments of the contributory retirement funds in the custody of the town treasurer were examined and listed. The recorded receipts and disbursements were checked with the records of the retirement board, the income was proved, and the cash balance on December 31, 1971 was verified.

The payments made on account of maturing debt and interest were compared with the amounts falling due and were checked with the cancelled securities on file. The unpaid coupons were listed and reconciled with the statement received from the bank of deposit.

The securities and savings bank books representing the investments of the several trust funds in custody of the town treasurer were examined and listed. The income was proved, the bequests were verified, the recorded disbursements were compared with the town accountant's books, and the cash on hand December 31, 1971 was verified.

The records of tax titles and tax possessions held by the town were examined and checked. The amounts transferred to the tax title account were compared with the collector's records, and the reported redemptions were checked with the receipts as recorded on the treasurer's and the town accountant's books. The tax titles and tax possessions on hand were listed, reconciled with the town accountant's ledger, and verified by comparison with the records at the Registry of Deeds.

The records of payroll deductions on account of Federal and State taxes, Blue Cross and Blue Shield, group insurance, etc., were examined and reconciled with the controlling accounts in the town accountant's ledger, the payments to the proper agencies being verified.

The books and accounts of the town collector were examined and checked. The tax, excise, special assessment, departmental, and water accounts outstanding at the time of the previous audit, as well as all subsequent commitment lists, were audited and verified. The cash book additions were proved and the reported payments to the treasurer were compared with the treasurer's recorded receipts. The recorded abatements were checked with the assessors' and other departmental records of abatements granted, the transfers to the tax title account were checked with the treasurer's records, and the outstanding accounts were listed and reconciled with the respective accounts in the town accountant's ledger.

The outstanding tax, excise, special assessment, departmental, and water accounts were further verified by mailing notices to a number of persons whose names appeared on the books as owing money to the town, the replies received thereto indicating that the accounts, as listed, are correct.

The records of apportioned assessments were examined and checked. The payments in advance were verified, the amounts added to taxes were checked, and the apportionments due in future years were listed and proved with the town accountant's ledger.

The town clerk's accounts pertaining to dog and sporting licenses, and to miscellaneous receipts, as well as to licenses and permits issued on behalf of the board of selectmen, were examined and checked. The payments to the treasurer and to the State were verified, and the cash balance on December 31, 1971 was proved by actual count of the cash in the office.

The records of receipts of the sealer of weights and measures, and of the inspectors of buildings, wires, gas and plumbing, as well as of the police, health, hospital, school, and library departments, and of all other departments collecting money for the town or committing bills for collection, were examined and checked. The recorded collections were compared with the treasurer's receipts, and the cash balances, including petty cash advances, were proved by actual count.

The surety bonds furnished by the several town officials required by law to furnish such surety were examined and found to be in proper form.

There are appended to this report, in addition to the balance sheet, tables showing a reconciliation of the treasurer's cash, summaries of the tax, excise, assessment, tax title, tax possession, departmental, and water accounts, as well as schedules showing the condition and transactions of the trust and retirement funds.

For the cooperation extended by the several town officials during the progress of the audit, I wish, on behalf of my assistants and for myself, to express appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER F. ABEL
Assistant Chief of Bureau
